

PROGRAM

- |                               |                        |
|-------------------------------|------------------------|
| An Outdoor Overture           | Aaron Copland          |
| Symphonic Songs for Band      | Robert Russell Bennett |
| 1. Serenade                   |                        |
| 2. Spiritual                  |                        |
| 3. Celebration                |                        |
| Dave Brubeck: It's About Time | arr. by C. Sayre       |
| 1. Take Five                  | Paul Desmond           |
| 2. Unsquare Dance             | Dave Brubeck           |
| 3. Blue Rondo a la Turk       | Dave Brubeck           |

Intermission

- |                                                              |                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Seventy Six Trombones                                        | Meredith Willsonarr. by Leroy Andersonadapted by J. Bocook |
| Concertino for Clarinet and BandDavid Nicholson, soloist | Frank Bencriscutto                                                 |
| When Angels Weep                                             | David Shaffer                                                      |
| A Funny Thing Happenedon the Way to the Forum            | Stephen Sondheimarr. by J. Moss                                |
| 1. Comedy Tonight                                            |                                                                    |
| 2. Everybody Ought to Have aMaid                         |                                                                    |
| 3. Bring Me My Bride                                         |                                                                    |
| 4. Lovely                                                    |                                                                    |