

PRESS RELEASE: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 7, 2018

PENINSULA SYMPHONIC WINDS CONCERT MAY 19, 2018

Mr. John Elg, Associate Director of the Peninsula Symphonic Winds, will lead the group in "A Musical Travelogue" at 3:00 PM on Saturday, May 19, 2018, at the Salvation Army's Torrance Chapel. The concert will feature musical favorites from around the world including Italian Holiday, Light Calvary Overture, España Cañi, and The Can-Can, as well as several popular American favorites such as Glenn Miller in Concert and Cartoon Carnival. The Salvation Army's Torrance Chapel is located at 4223 Emerald Street in Torrance. Admission is $10 for adults, and children 12 and under are free with an adult. Plenty of parking is available across the street from the facility. See www.pswinds.org for more information.

John Elg

John Elg demonstrated his versatile interest in music at a young age. In school and at church he played clarinet and guitar and sang in the choir. He graduated from California State University, Northridge and went on to receive a master's degree in Conducting from University of Cincinnati, College-Conservatory of Music. Elg has taught music at the high school and college level and has conducted over 500 studio sessions at FOX, Warner Bros., SONY and Paramount. He was conductor of the Laguna Beach "Pageant of the Masters" Orchestra from 2009 - 2016.

The Peninsula Symphonic Winds is a 50-member community band established in 1996 that gives four to five concerts per year. The band rehearses on Wednesday evenings at Harbor College and offers local musicians the opportunity to maintain and improve their musical skills. Community members who play a wind or percussion instrument are welcome to join.

For more information, contact Joe Siegel at: jdsiegel9@gmail.com